On behalf of the American Society of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery (ASOPRS), we are delighted to invite you to the 43rd Annual Fall Scientific Symposium, "Perspective, Passion, and Progress." This year's meeting will be held on Thursday, November 8 and Friday, November 9 in Chicago, home of the blues, the heart of comedy and the idea of the skyscraper! This year's two-day ASOPRS Scientific Symposium will feature advances and innovations in aesthetics, oculofacial, orbital, and lacrimal surgery. Invited national and international speakers will share their experiences and the ever popular ASOPRS free papers will stimulate you with the latest information in surgical techniques, innovative ideas, and research.

Our invited guest speakers include: Shan R. Baker, MD, from the University of Michigan, Mitchel P. Goldman, MD, from the University of California, San Diego, and Petros Perros, MD, FRCP, from Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals.

Back by popular demand are the Aesthetic Day breakout sessions! Four breakout sessions will be showcased this year, entitled: Advanced Facelifting Techniques, Anatomical and Surgical Foundations for Rhinoplasty, Expanding Your Practice with Cosmetic Dermatology Techniques, and Periorbital Rejuvenation in Asian and Dark Skin.

Chicago is a wonderful city in which to learn the latest concepts in oculofacial plastic surgery, renew old friendships and create new ones. This year's social event will be a private show at the world's premier comedy club/theatre and school of improvisation, The Second City, on Thursday, November 8. Tickets are limited (and amazingly priced) so be sure to purchase yours today!

We are thankful for the generous early support of Stryker and DeLaine. We look forward to seeing you in Chicago for what we know will be an outstanding meeting.

Sincerely,

Robert G. Fante, MD, FACS – 2012 ASOPRS Program Chair
Michael T. Yen, MD – Aesthetics Program Chair

SYMPOSIUM OBJECTIVES:

AESTHETIC DAY

- To provide a forum for presentation of new concepts, new data, and new techniques in cosmetic oculofacial plastic surgery to enhance knowledge, competence, and outcomes.
- To promote excellence in patient care and outcomes for those having facial cosmetic surgery.
- To present opportunities for exchange of knowledge with our colleagues.
- To highlight areas of cosmetic oculofacial plastic and reconstructive surgery where research activity has produced improved outcomes and areas where additional research is needed.
- To provide the results of scientific studies concerning new surgical techniques, devices or equipment in cosmetic oculofacial plastic surgery.
- To discuss present techniques in an in-depth fashion on numerous cosmetic surgery topics.

FUNCTIONAL DAY

- To provide a forum for presentation of new concepts, new data, and new techniques in reconstructive oculofacial plastic surgery to enhance knowledge, competence, and outcomes.
- To promote excellence in patient care and outcomes, including all areas of eyelid, lacrimal, socket, orbital disease and surgery.
- To present opportunities for exchange of knowledge with our colleagues.
- To highlight areas of oculofacial plastic and reconstructive surgery where research activity has produced improved outcomes and areas where additional research is needed.
- To provide the results of scientific studies concerning new surgical techniques, devices or equipment in reconstructive oculofacial plastic surgery.

CAMERA, CELL PHONE AND VIDEO RECORDING POLICY

Attendees are strictly prohibited from photographing or videotaping the general sessions, breakout sessions, posters, videos, and/or exhibit hall. This includes taking pictures of the speakers, slides, and/or posters. The educational events will be monitored, and attendees violating this policy will be escorted from the symposium and not allowed to return to any part of the meeting. No refunds will be issued and future ASOPRS meeting attendance may be prohibited.

CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION

ASOPRS is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to sponsor the Continuing Medical Education (CME) for physicians. The American Society of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery takes responsibility for the content, quality, and scientific integrity of this CME activity.

The American Society of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery designates this live activity for a maximum of 17.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

TARGET AUDIENCE

The ASOPRS Fall Scientific Symposium Meeting is developed for all interested physicians and related health care personnel including, but not limited to, oculofacial plastic and reconstructive surgeons, otolaryngologists, head and neck surgeons, facial plastic surgeons, dermatologic surgeons as well as general ophthalmologists. The meeting is also designed to be of interest to physicians in training and allied health personnel.

CANCELLATIONS

ASOPRS will issue a refund, less a $50 administrative fee, upon receipt of written notice on or before October 9, 2012. No refunds will be made after October 9, 2012. Sorry, refunds will not be made for no-shows.

ASOPRS SOCIAL EVENT

Second City's 100th Revue: Who Do We Think We Are?

It's time to laugh as you head to Second City to experience a comedic performance that will have your eyes watering and your stomachs aching. Join us at The Second City! This comedy club is a famous North American institution for stand-up and improvisational comedy. Legendary alumni who began their careers in Chicago at The Second City include Dan Aykroyd, John Belushi, and Gilda Radner.

The Main Stage Theater will host an exclusive, private performance for attendees of the ASOPRS Meeting entitled, The Second City's 100th Revue: Who Do We Think We Are? This revue explores the good, the bad and the ridiculous that makes us uniquely American and more importantly, makes us human. This is the perfect opportunity to be entertained by some of the most talented improvisational actors around and to enjoy a Chicago icon. Be on the lookout, you may even see a performance from the next comedic legend to be!

Motor coaches will depart from the Swissôtel and transport you to and from Second City. Show time is 8:00 to 10:00 PM.

Tickets are limited so be sure to purchase yours today.

Ticket Cost: $30 per person (tickets are non-refundable)
